Purpose of Election Observer Panel

- Provides an avenue for public observation of and input into the election process
- Assists in ensuring the integrity of the election process
- Encourages participation and builds voter confidence in the election process

Invitations

At E-60, prepare an Election Fact Sheet and list of observer opportunities with dates of key activities for the upcoming election. The Fact Sheet includes a notice that all aspects of the election process can be observed by the public. Distribute to Election Advisory Committee, provide to the Marin Independent Journal, and post on Registrar of Voters website, www.marinvotes.org.

Between E-60 and E-40, prepare letters of invitation to become members of the Logic and Accuracy Board and Election Observer Panels and send to the following organizations:

- Marin County Grand Jury
- Political Party Central Committee Chairs in County
- League of Women Voters

The County Grand Jury and the League of Women Voters are asked to provide members for the Logic and Accuracy Board which includes Election Night observation. Political parties are asked to provide observers for polls and election night.

Appointment Letters and Letters for Introduction to Poll Workers

When the organizations provide the names of persons interested in being election observers, the Registrar of Voters sends the observers an appointment letter with offer to meet to review the observer materials and process. Following are the materials provided to the observers.

- Letter of introduction to Inspectors of polling places,
- List of polling place addresses within the county,
- Election Fact Sheet,
- Procedures for Observers and
- Observer Feedback Form

Mechanism for Feedback

Observers are given questionnaire for each polling place. Questionnaire provides feedback to election official on Election Day experience.

Notice to Media

At E-20, the Registrar of Voters sends information about election night vote counting activities to all major news media – radio, TV and newspapers – in the area. The election night summary and a list of polling places in the county are included in the mailing.

Meet with Observers

At E-12, the Registrar and Assistant Registrar meet with the Logic and Accuracy Board panel members from the Marin County League of Women Voters and the Marin County Grand Jury to conduct the Logic and Accuracy test and explain election night observer responsibilities.

At E-11, The Registrar of Voters meets with individuals on the Observer Panel to explain observer materials and answer questions

Public Notice of Vote Counting

At E-10, the Registrar of Voters publishes a legal notice notifying the public of the addresses of all polling places in the county and the location of the central county site for mail ballots.

SAMPLE LETTER INVITING MEMBERS FOR ELECTION OBSERVER PANEL

SUBJECT: Appointment of Election Observer Panel for the June 3, 2008 Direct Primary Election

I am writing to invite you to select one to two members of your organization to be on our Election Observer Panel to observe activities associated with the June 3, 2008 Direct Primary Election.

Members of the Observer Panel are invited to observe activities at one or more polling places on Election Day and to observe the return and tabulation of ballots at the Civic Center on Election Night. Panel members are also invited to observe post election activities such as the processing of absentee and provisional ballots, the manual tally of 1% of the precincts and the reconciliation of ballots and rosters after the election. Members of the Panel will be provided with a list of the polling places, a letter of introduction to the Inspector of the Precinct, and a questionnaire for them to fill out about their observation activities.

If your organization would like to be represented on the Election Observer Panel, please notify me by mail, by phone at (415) 499-6401, or by e-mail at eginnold@co.marin.ca.us with the name of your representative by May 16. When I have the names of the panel members, I will meet with them before the election to explain their role in greater detail, provide them with the information they need and answer any questions they might have.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Elaine Ginnold
Registrar of Voters
